

RESPONSIBLE JEWELLERY COUNCIL (RJC) ANNOUNCES THE MUNICH SHOW / GEMWORLD AS A SUPPORTING RJC MEMBER

14th October 2024: The world's leading standards setting organisation for the global jewellery and watch industry, the Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC) is proud to announce the Munich Show / Gemworld 24-27 October 2024 as a Supporting RJC member. At the show the Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC), will be hosting the RJC booth.

At the Munich Jewellery Show through talks and meetings, the RJC hopes to continue to strengthen a sounding board for the jewellery and watch industry to grow sustainably. With the focus on creating sustainable supply chains, the RJC are empowering established heritage brands as well as small businesses to develop business models that create a positive social and environmental legacy.

Visitors to The Munich Show / Gemworld are invited to meet the RJC team on its booth on 24 – 27 October Munich, 2024. The RJC will be on hand to discuss all benefits and assets available for members and support and information for companies wishing to become a member.

The RJC has just launched a new Communications Toolkit, designed exclusively for its certified members. This empowers RJC certified members to showcase their commitment to responsible sourcing and sustainability by prominently displaying the RJC logo and gaining access to a range of marketing materials, including posters, videos, and press releases, all available through the member portal. By utilising these resources, members not only align with industry best practices but also communicate trust and responsibility to their customers.

The Munich Show / Gemworld as a Sponsor Member specifically offer the RJC the platform to engage with industry stakeholders and channel discussions on the need to look at their business practices to support the five pillars of sustainable development. The RJC are grateful to the Munich Show / Gemworld for this platform and becoming a Supporting Member.
